 - 3. Working with another student on any test, quiz, care plan, or any assignment when the instructor has expected independent and unaided effort.
 - 4. Buying, selling, possessing, soliciting, transmitting, or using a test or any material purported to be or proven to be unreleased or previously released contents of any instructor-created test, quiz, or examination. This includes the sharing of notes taken during a test review.

 - 2. Summarizing and paraphrasing ideas without acknowledging the source.

- E. Self-Plagiarism – Recycling or reusing one's own specific words from previously submitted work.
- F. Failure to Report - When behavior suspicious of an Academic Integrity violation is not brought to the attention of College officials for investigation.

Reporting Academic Integrity Violations

A. Obligation to Report. If a student and/or faculty member suspects an violation of Academic Integrity has occurred, a report in writing of any suspected violation should be submitted within three (3) business days.

- Students and/or faculty planning to submit an allegation of suspected academic integrity violation should first consult the suspected student's Program Director. Should the Program Director and the faculty member feel that the issue can be effectively addressed at the faculty level, they will both meet with the student to discuss the matter.
- The faculty member will then prepare a report detailing the circumstances of the event, the meeting with the student, and any related outcomes. The Program Director will keep this report in alignment with the College's record retention policy. The matter will rest here, and no violation will be found against the student.

B. Self-Report. A student who violates the Academic Integrity Pledge may self-report and must do so within three (3) business days of occurrence of the violation(s). An initial admission may be given verbally or via email, but a written report signed by the student must be submitted to the Program Director no later than one (1) business day after making the initial admission. Self-reported cases will be handled administratively by the Program Director.

Retaliation

SCHS has zero tolerance for retaliation against any individual who reports a suspected academic integrity violation in good faith. Incidents of retaliation violate the student conduct policy (ADM 3.05) and will be subject to disciplinary action under that policy.

Corrective Measures

Any student found culpable of an Academic Integrity violation may be subject to one or more of the following corrective measures:

- Loss of credit for course work or the course;
- Written Warning that indicates that a subsequent determination of an Academic Integrity violation may result in a sanction of dismissal and/or expulsion;
- Restitution to pay for the repair or replacement of material items;

- Suspension for one or more semesters (including the current semester);
- Expulsion or permanent dismissal, in which case the student is not eligible to return to the College;
- Other corrective measures as deemed appropriate by the Vice President or Program Director.
